

Business and Human Rights Developments in the Netherlands

A closer look at the roles of OECD National Contact Point and Netherlands Authority for Consumers and Markets

Clifford Chance, in collaboration with Pels Rijcken and DLA Piper, invite you to this in person event celebrating the launch of the Business and Human Rights Lawyers Association in the Netherlands and an in-depth discussion of recent trends. Please note, this session will be in Dutch.

Date: Tuesday 21 November 2023

Location: Clifford Chance LLP
Droogbak 1A
1013 GE Amsterdam

Programme:

15:30 Registration

16:00 Start of programme

- an introduction of the BHRLA by the sponsoring firms
- Liesbeth Enneking, independent member of the OECD Dutch National Contact point will highlight the specific instance procedure and the role of lawyers therein
- Evert Jan Hummelen, representative of the ACM (Netherlands Authority for Consumers and Markets) will discuss the agency's oversight of corporate claims, with a particular focus on sustainability
- Q&A

17:30 Reception

This launch event has limited capacity and your personal registration is required.

RSVP - suzanne.bras@cliffordchance.com

The Business & Human Rights Lawyers Association (BHRLA) is a global platform that inspires and advances business and human rights leadership, learning, collaboration and practices in commercial legal practice. More information is available here.

The Business and Human Rights Lawyers Association privacy policy can be found here.